Humanity's Future Regarding ET Disclosure, AI, and a Micronova Event
<https://rumble.com/v6g0a4p> 2-6-2025

In 1988, Miriam Delicado had a contact experience with Tall Blonde extraterrestrials who told her they were involved in the creation of humanity and rescuing large numbers of humans at the end of different historical ages. She said the Tall Blondes intervened in huge spacecraft (aka space arks), to take large numbers of humans off the surface to the safety of outer space, the bottom of oceans, or Inner Earth, to wait out the cataclysmic surface events.

After her profound contact experience, Delicado was approached by Men in Black and other organizations who wanted to recruit her to different official government programs so they could better understand alien technologies. She said that the contact enhanced her psychic abilities, and she was invited by a secret Russian organization to join a psychic community, where she would be trained and be among “her kind”.

In this interview, Delicado discusses recent developments concerning UFO sightings involving NHI craft, how mystery drones are being used to distract the public, the Trump Administration’s likelihood to promote ET disclosure, the use of Psionics to summon and shoot down ET spacecraft, new whistleblowers promoting a limited hangout, and the Stargate AI Project. Finally, she believes that in mid-2025, a global event will occur that will forever change life on the planet, this will be followed by ET disclosure, and that a Micronova event is still a distinct possibility that will happen later in humanity’s future.

DR. SALLA: In 1988, Miriam Delicado had a contact experience with tall, blonde extraterrestrials who took her up on their spacecraft. She was told about the history of the Earth, how these extraterrestrials are involved in the creation and the protection of humanity during successive cataclysm, using very large space arks or spacecraft. She also had her psychic abilities heightened and was approached by many blacks from the United States and also from Russia that wanted to recruit her to their psychic espionage programs. She's here today on Exopolitics Today to discuss some of the amazing events that are unfolding on our planet.

ANNOUNCER: We're listening to Exopolitics Today with Dr. Michael Salla, your source for the uncensored truth regarding the human extraterrestrial global and political agenda. Click the like button and subscribe to this channel. And now, here is Dr. Michael Salla.

DR. SALLA: Well welcome back Miriam to Exopolitics Today.

MIRIAM: Thank you Michael. I'm excited to be here today because it's only been a few months since we spoke last and yet it seems like we're in a whole different reality with everything that's happening in terms of disclosure at this point. So thanks for having me.

DR. SALLA: Well there's always some people that are new to your information and so for those that are new, maybe in a thumbnail just tell them about what happened in 1988 and your book Blue Star Fulfilling Prophecy.

MIRIAM: So for those that don't know me, my name is Miriam Delicado. I'm Canadian and in 1988 I was driving in a car with three adults and a child in a remote area of Canada. And I was taken from the side of the road on the highway on board a craft with tall, long-haired blue-eyed extraterrestrials. Some of the short beings that have like round black eyes, not the elongated ones of four to four and a half feet tall, they were also present.

And during that encounter I was taken on board this craft with these very tall beings and I was with them for approximately three hours where they downloaded massive amounts of information into my mind about the true history of the world and what they called the first, second, third and fourth world and also going into the fifth.

And what they described to me was at different points in time they described, for example, potential cataclysms that could happen to the planet as well as, and I want people to really take note of this, as well as the potential of overcoming our own humanity and our own destructive nature of humanity to live in a peaceful world moving out into the future.

And so there was a lot of information that they shared in terms of how spiritually people would, humanity as a global society, would continue to unfold their own spiritual connection to everything that exists. And how I've been describing that most recently is that we're talking about the highest level of physics that exists and if one understands that really high level of physics, then you can understand spirituality and how everything is connected.

And so these beings gave me, at points in time, they gave me timetables or they gave me signs to look for. And for myself, going into the 37th year since this encounter, it never ceases to amaze even me how all of that information that they shared has come true, how it's been validated and it continues to be validated.

And I don't think I'll ever stop being shocked and amazed even myself at how much I was told and also on a really personal level how challenging it's been to wait for humanity to catch up to this information and to start looking at this information. So I hope we're going to get into where we are with this disclosure process and what's happening and with the drones that people are seeing and sightings and everything like that. Yes, thank you.

DR. SALLA: So with the tall blondes, people will want to know, well, are they the same thing as Nordics or are they like these tall whites that others have talked about? So yes, tell us about these beings.

MIRIAM: So there are not a lot of people talk about Charles Hall had contact with tall whites. That's what he calls them. That is not these beings that I've had contact with. And then there are people who have had contact with Nordics, which I have as well at one time, which was very weird. But the Nordics are very athletic in essence.

They look very athletic normally. And that's not who these beings were. These particular beings that I'd never define where they're from, I don't actually know the name of the place that they're from. But even if I did not disclose it, because otherwise people attach too much information in a very blanketed way, which may not be correct, I've had people tell me, oh, I know who they are and they've written to me, if you want to know more about them, you let me know.

I'm like, listen, I don't think there's any more on the planet that could tell me more about these beings than they already did. But they're the caretakers of this Earth from what I was told. And I believe that because they're dealing with the creation of humanity. And they're very, very unique in the spectrum of what other people's contacts have been when they talk about them.

And so they're very, very focused on that high level physics, for example, being able to enter our dreams and teach us and show us and pull us along in terms of understanding who we are, where we are from, and what our personal purpose is and maybe what our purpose is as a global family.

So these particular beings I call the tall blondes, I also call them the caretakers, and I also call them the great ancestors. And I think that of all the names, the great ancestors fits most into my own spiritual acceptance of who and what they are. And just to share, because you'd mentioned it already, that I wrote a book called Blue Star Fulfilling Prophecy that you can download for free on my website, BlueStarProphecy.com. I suggest people do that as a baseline of understanding of who these beings are and my interaction with them and how hard it's been over the years to really accept this into my life. But I really am honored every time to have an interview that enables me to be able to share that there is so much to this phenomenon when we talk about disclosure and we talk about who and what these beings are and how they're related to us on the planet. And it's really a critical time for people to use discernment, and I'd like to talk about that a little bit for where we are right now for using that discernment and how to use that discernment.

DR. SALLA: So I think we will be covering some topics where discernment is definitely required. Now one of the elements of your contact experience and then the fallout was that you were approached by these kind of government military agents that wanted to recruit you as a psychic to fly their flying saucer craft. So can you kind of like just refresh us as to how that unfolded?

MIRIAM: Well, I'd like to remind everyone. This was back in 1988 between 88 and 91 when the majority of these types of contacts were taking place for me. And how that came about was I started a group to try and find other people like myself. And I think that it was infiltrated by some military people.

And I started having different individuals come to me and just tried to get close to me and ask me a lot of questions about really about the science and the physics of the crafts themselves. And I went to the very first UFO Congress conference in Tucson, Arizona. And at that particular conference, there was a man, for example, who from the moment I arrived came up, started talking to me and literally followed me for the entire time of the conference.

If he wasn't directly speaking with me, he would sit at the next table beside me. And everyone around me noticed this. What was interesting was that this sort of little group of people were always asking me the same questions about what I knew about how the craft were run, what kind of energy system they used. And one of the questions they would always ask is, could I pilot the craft and I always said no?

And I said no because I knew that if I said yes, that it would put my life in jeopardy and that was something that I couldn't risk at the time. And so between 22 and about 25 years old, I mean, I was being approached by people who told me that they were ex-military people. They told me that they were part of the military. They told me they were part of special projects. But they were never direct about why they were standing in front of me. And so it was like they were just trying to covertly pull information on me. So I was very conscious of that back then.

And then at one point, really out of the blue, a man walked into, I was working in a yogurt shop, literally frozen yogurt cups, frost the counter selling them. And I was very so young. And I had this man walking off the street and walked right up to me and he looked right at me. No one else was there. He walked right up and looked me right in the eye and said, do you work for the CIA or the FBI?

And I laughed and I said, no. And they said, have you ever worked for the CIA or the FBI? And I said, no. And I knew right then that it was like, okay, this is serious. Like he's serious. And then he said, he basically offered for me to be part of a program by the Russians that was taking place at that time. To me, he said, we work with people like you who are highly psychic.

He said, do you realize how powerful you are? I said, yes, I do. He said, but can you control it? I said, yes, I can. He said, we have a community with about 10,000 people like yourself. He said, you'll never feel alone again. We'll teach you everything, et cetera, et cetera. And I said, no, thank you. And I actually said to him, whoever sent you here, thank you very much. But I want you to know, don't ever come back because I'll never work with anyone. So there's this thread throughout, especially throughout my early contact where I had a lot of very strange things happen.

And for me, looking at a lot of the new whistleblowers that are out now, talking about disclosure and how they work for these projects and things, I mean, for me, I've lived this for 37 years. And sometimes I'm rolling my eyes thinking, what do these people think that they're even bringing forward? We've been talking about this for 40 plus years and now new whistleblowers are coming out.

But I see them as being very manipulative in the information that they're bringing forward, wanting to change and shift the way that people are looking at this topic. One part of it that's really important to understand about what's happening right now is they are trying to limit the scope of what people are actually looking at. That is my opinion. If I were to look at all the new whistleblowers, all the things that came out in front of Congress, all of the images, the photos and videos that are coming out, they're trying to limit what humanity is going to ask questions about. And it's really important for the public to understand that these projects that have been taken on, for example, by groups that are not directly involved, directly part of the government itself. They have been working on literally trying to understand phenomenon as a whole, in my opinion. And they're so limited in what they know because you cannot fully understand or even comprehend the extent of how powerful this phenomenon is unless you have some level of spiritual connection.

And that is what the earlier conversations were all about. It's about that physics and the physics being that spiritual understanding because they're tied together. And that's really an important part of the conversation we need to start.

DR. SALLA: And maybe you can elaborate a bit on that because I know that there was this kind of early appearance of these contactees like George Adamski, Howard Menger, Orfeo Angelucci, and many of them did that. They combined the spiritual message that they were being given by the extraterrestrials with the kind of technical aspects of the craft that they were seeing. But it seems that this contactee phenomenon, especially from the 50s and onwards, has been deliberately downplayed or even kind of disappeared deliberately. So yes, you want to tell us why this has been happening?

MIRIAM: It's really simple. If an individual understands the physics and whenever I say physics, I'm going to be talking spirituality at the same time. Whenever you understand that, you have the ability to shift reality to a degree. You can shift reality to a degree.

You can manipulate reality to a degree. You are able to travel to, for example, to other parts of the world and actually visually see what's happening. You can hear people having conversations. You can contact people within the dream time and manipulate them, for example.

High level spirituality is extraordinarily powerful. I've always said that the most powerful technology that we have on the Earth is in fact us as human beings. So talking about UFOs and the craft is one thing. You're talking about a particular type of energy, right? But when you're talking about how they're run, that runs on the spiritual part of the physics that was taught to people like myself in terms of how our thoughts connect in with the UFOs and the ufology and all of that. It's all part of the system. It's a highly complex web that always has been in place. It's just that people are starting to see it and they're starting to ask more and more questions. So for example, 37 years ago when I said extraterrestrial, people said, what is that? I don't know what that means. They have to go and look it up in the dictionary. Literally have to go to the dictionary to look up what an extraterrestrial was.

Fast forward to today, there's not a person on Earth that doesn't know what that word means or what it implies, right? So there has been the slow awakening of the different interdimensional realities that exist around us and that has been the point all along. So the more that we accept and open the doorway to these other possibilities, the more information we receive about who and what we are, what we're doing here and also the kind of the control, the mind control does not have impact on it.

The mind control is not able to work on us. And this is really important because if I am told on repeat over and over and over and over again that something, it doesn't matter what it is. If I'm told something a thousand times a day, every day, a year that someone wants me to believe, that's all fine and good.

If you were spiritually awake, if you were spiritually aware on some level, that will not work with you because you will see it as being a manipulative tactic and you will not just allow that information to be taken in without questioning it, because spirituality and its infinitesimal core is about questioning life and questioning everything.

So spirituality is about the questioning of everything. It is about not following anything blindly in any way. So some people might also look at themselves and say, oh, I must be spiritually awake because I question everything, but that's not true either because even when we do that, we can get stuck in pathways that have been self-created by others that are still being placed in you.

So it's like for me and I want to say this, I have arguments with the left and I have arguments with the right politically because I'm not interested in who anyone is. I'm not interested. I'm looking at only the truth of what it is, any particular subject that these individuals are focused on and rather than blanket, oh, I love this leader, I love that leader.

No, we have to look at what the topics are and what the subjects are that these leaders are taking us to. And this is where in the disclosure movement right now, we have to question like, what is the motive? What is the motive behind bringing all of this information out? And I think that's where we are right now. We're questioning the motives of a lot of the disclosure movement wouldn't you say Michael?

DR. SALLA: Oh, yes, definitely. I mean, the idea of a limited hangout being deliberately rolled out to kind of like waylay people to make them think that this phenomenon has not progressed beyond a certain stage. I mean, that to me is clearly how the elite want to kind of manage this so that they can, again, fool the general public into believing a set of kind of half-truths that they will kind of maintain for 10, 20 years.

And I wanted to ask you about a prediction you made about your UFO sightings taking off, that there would be a lot more that would be allowed to appear in the public arena. And then kind of like overnight you had this drone phenomenon. So why is that drone phenomenon a distraction?

MIRIAM: Yes, this is very interesting. So the last time I was on the program, I was sharing with your audience that the next stage was going to be them allowing photographs and videos of this phenomenon to be put out into the public. And then the next thing we know, we're looking at these drones. But in no way do I believe that these drones are "fully extraterrestrial" in nature. I don't believe that. What I do know, which is a little bit of a concern to me, is that the timing of the drones. First of all, back in November of 2020, I believe it was November, there were drones that were identical in their appearance and the way that they were acting. That happened in Colorado in November of 2020. Were you aware of that?

DR. SALLA: Not that particular case. I wasn't aware of that.

MIRIAM: So if you look it up, they were they were identical. They were apparently six feet wide and they have these lights on them, and that was back in 2020. And I thought, huh, I wonder what that's about. A little bit of a small test is what I thought of some kind.

Now, when the Biden administration and the UK told Ukraine that they could use long range missiles into Russia, it was directly after that, that the drones went up into the air. Now, is that a coincidence? I don't know.

But what I did start to see was that the drones, not only in New Jersey, but were also around other military sites in different parts of the world, they were not just in that one area. And we are very aware within the UFO community that these physical orbs have been known to go over nuclear sites and shut down the entire system.

And so I found that interesting because Russia was talking about releasing nuclear weapons, which was really frightening for all of us.

And so I do not believe that these are manned, meaning I don't believe the drones are under the control of extraterrestrials.

And I don't believe that extraterrestrials created them, period.

However, there are aspects of the drones that look as though they have possible reverse engineering put into them. For example, they seem to be able to stay up in the air for a very long period of time.

The lighting on it is, the way that it's producing itself, it's almost like a like plasma, but not, not quite. It's just very, very, very bright. It's brighter than normal. It twinkles in a very specific way, which implies that it might be a special kind of energy.

The other thing that we've heard is that the drones are able to like cause other drones to lose all of their power, which we know is something that extraterrestrial craft is capable of doing, is shutting down and draining the power out of cars and electricity and things like that.

There is that happening as well. I suspect that if you look at the timeline of how everything works, they came out about a year ago and said, we're going to give you a year to come out and tell us what's going on with UFOs and extraterrestrials.

And then a year later, there were four men sitting in front of Congress and limitedly very, very limited answering questions about what they knew or didn't in terms of didn't know in my opinion about the whole phenomenon.

And then right after that were these drones that came out and I do find that rather interesting that there was, there's been this, this sequence of events that have taken place. And as you know, people are not "fully freaking out going, oh my God, like our aliens coming down from the sky, what's going on".

The Pentagon came out and said that they didn't know what it was, but here I want you to really think about this, really think about what I'm about to say. However, the reverse engineering in my opinion was given to other groups and companies and organizations outside the government, outside the direct government. So there's also this thinking and thought that's kind of come to the surface finally with people putting it together saying, you know what, if the governments were fully in control, there would have to be some level of transparency somewhere.

But instead it's kind of like subcontractors of the governments, right? And those subcontractors are the ones that are doing this reverse engineering and then creating things out of that technology and understanding of that high level of physics.

And so I believe that there are and is testing that's going on because there is a continued slow unfolding of the eventual full disclosure of extraterrestrials walking amongst us or at least. And I don't think that that's going to happen. I don't think that to that level of disclosure is going to be happening within the next few years. I don't, I don't feel that right now today. That could change, but as it feels right now, we're in 2025, 26, 27, I don't see that happening.

But what I do see the potential of taking place over the next couple of years is more and more video, as I said last time coming out. This video that came out recently of the egg that was released all over the place, I felt as though it was almost an embarrassment and a way of causing people to not look at other information that's going to be coming out.

It was rather upsetting for me to see that there was this huge hype and buildup of information. Information is going to come out and then this green egg video, which I thought was sad.

And we need to be very careful and cautious about how we're viewing a lot of this information. So the drones, I think, are part of a distraction. And I also suspect that part of the reason that these drones have been spotted in different places is possibly because they might be covering up orb activity. And so Michael, are you aware that there has been orb activity in the areas where the drones have been showing up?

DR. SALLA: Yes, in fact, that was something that the ARRO office commented on. They actually did a report and they said that the majority of sightings up and to, well, prior to the drones were these orbs. And so they were talking about orbs showing up all over the place and different types of orbs.

Then there was this shift from orbs to drones. And what's very interesting is people like Lou Elizondo, I mean, he has been pushing this national security threat scenario saying that these drones in particular, that they are this kind of threat. And trying to kind of get like the whole subject, kind of like contextualized in the idea of an ongoing national security threat. So what do you think of Luis Elizondo? His new book, Imminent, and him kind of pushing this national security threat narrative?

MIRIAM: In my opinion, this individual is being, is completely oblivious to most of the real UFO information. I think that he's not really understanding a lot of it. And I've seen personally, I'm sure you have as well, and many of your listeners, that when you're very new into beginning to research and look at this phenomenon, you can make a lot of really big assumptions about information and what's happening or not happening. You have to have a very balanced approach to look at the positive, the negative, the question really continue to dive deep. And this individual, Luis Elizondo, I've seen nothing but, whenever I hear him speak, I do not connect with what he's saying. I do feel that he is being, he's one of the individuals that I think is being, he's either being told what to say to bring to the public, or he's been educated really well in a certain way, and then he on his own is bringing it to the public. But either way, he's either knows that he's doing that or he doesn't. But his information is extraordinarily limited. It may not be completely inaccurate, but it's extraordinarily limited in what he has to offer in terms of understanding the entire concept of UFOs, extraterrestrials, and the spiritual aspect of it. He's completely limited in it.

DR. SALLA: That he has been mentored and advised by Christopher Mellon, who was a, I guess you would call him a senior bureaucrat or official within the Pentagon. And he's also one of these people that comes from that Mellon family with a lot of money and a lot of influence. And his cousin, John Warner IV, the son of the ex-senator, I mean, he's seeing that this Christopher Mellon is really just using Luis Elizondo to kind of put out the agenda of this particular control group that has always been running the phenomenon for decades. But now they've kind of set up Luis Elizondo and they're making sure he gets these contracts with the book company and also gets a lot of legacy media attention because that's exactly what they want. Someone like him shaping the public narrative.

MIRIAM: If you can be told that you could have the answers to the universe, to who you are, what you are, where you're from, where you're going, to understand how to travel through the Earth, to travel the solar system, to have psychic abilities, to have spiritual awareness, to live in peace, to explore the Earth itself without leaving your home. If you have the ability to send messages to your friends without the use of technology, if you could hear the voices of your friends, your family, members, if they were in trouble and knew exactly where they were.

If you had all of that, it would be an extraordinary gift and they don't want you to have it. And by telling you to be fearful and to be fearful of these beings, all of them, and that they're a threat to you, that's what they're saying. That's the threat to you, to have that connection. They are so powerful, if they wanted to take over the world, they would have done it already. It's just that simple.

If they wanted to destroy different things, they would have done it already. They are very, very, very strong in their ability to shape and shift our everything, our conscious, subconscious, our, and just everything. So I feel very strongly that there are all these people that are coming out and saying that they're national security threat and they have to be fearful and we don't know what they are.

It's a narrative that we need to be very cautious of. But at the same time, are there specific threats that are taking place from, let's say, one particular group of extraterrestrials and spacecraft? That is where the balance to questioning has to come in and we have to look at the way I see it is Luis Elizondo is only looking at one part of this and not, not all of it in its entirety.

And until that balance comes, we don't have all of the picture of this. I view these new whistleblowers as the same as I saw a lot of researchers in my history going back all the way to 1991. Everyone was initially only looking at the technology and because they didn't have this any kind of spiritual awareness of that high level of physics, which is spirituality and how it combines and creates this weave and this matrix that we live in.

And so there is, there, the reason that they don't want you to look any deeper is because if you do, the whole matrix starts to shift because you're not malleable anymore. You're not following blindly into any kind of an agenda. You're asking questions about the realities of life. You're asking whether or not it's right for a human being to whether it's right for humans in one part of the world to live in total luxury in the other part of the world to suffer greatly.

Where's the balance in that? And how can we shift and change that? Those are the types of things that I ask every day. Why is it that we're giving billions and billions of dollars to the developed world all the time and still leaving people suffering and starving in other parts of the world? That's the questions that the extraterrestrials are asking. Why are we not balancing that?

And so when we question the matrix that we live in, we become truly sovereign as a spiritual entity and being. And that is something that the all these extraterrestrials in some way, shape, or form are causing us to look at ourselves and go delve deeply spiritually. For this whole time, for 37 years, I've been told that spirituality did not play a part in the genre.

And now that people are sort of waking up to that, we have to ask ourselves, are the drones, the distraction from us seeing the reality that we have waiting for us. The reality that is waiting for us. And I think that that is where we are. But spirituality plays a very big part in this.

And I want to share a dream that I had with your audience. And this to me, and I want to make it really crystal clear to the audience, don't be screaming at me because you are on the left. Don't be screaming at me because you were on the right. I am not interested. This is a non-political statement.

And I do not believe in any way that this that Trump is the savior of our world. He is an individual who is on a path like everyone else.

However, I had a dream about him about two years ago that was extremely powerful. And it's interesting because parts of that dream are sort of unfolding.

I'm not going to share the dream in detail, but part of it relates to extraterrestrial disclosure, which is very interesting because of where we are right now. People have said to me, would Obama disclose a said no, would this person disclose no? And I don't believe that Trump is going to disclose either. He might soft disclose. I think that there is a real potential for him to soft disclose, but he is not going to fully disclose because he can't.

Because in order to fully disclose, you have to have the same level of understanding as someone like myself about being able to see every part of this and how it interweaves with the energy, the physical crafts, the interdimensional craft, time travel, the history of the world, the current state of the world, where we are going, all of it.

You can't fully disclose all of that. So the dream that I had was about two years ago. And it was one of these dreams. It's a very rare dream because of the nature of the dream itself. And it was extraordinarily detailed. I could see the different colors and layers of a tiny little flower that I saw that I looked at one point in the dream. And how many petals were on it and the different colors of it. Everything was in extraordinary detail.

In that dream, I was being led to lead and there's all these sub layers to the dream that correlated to the current situation in the world. And at one point, I had saved all of these people by going into a church because there was this massive storm that was taking place outside. And when I walked out, when I opened doors, there were about dozens of these tall, blonde haired blue-eyed extraterrestrial standing there. And I remember taking a breath in. And the energy of that was so powerful that it was as if I was going and walking on board with that craft that day in 1988. It was an identical feeling.

And so there was this powerful interaction with them. And I said, what is happening here? I don't understand what's happening. And so what they did was they took me and we rose up above the Earth. And I was looking down at the Earth and they were telling me all these things that were going to be happening and how, and I'm not going to get into that, but they were telling me about certain things that were going to start to unfold. And I've watched them unfold with that.

But where it comes to Trump, what happened was they said, they said at some point, if all of these things unfold, if you as humanity are able to take these steps, then we will at some point, we will go to this man and it was Trump and he was sitting in this room, it was dark, and it was as if there was a light on him.

And they said, we're going to go to him and we are going to, and here's what is really important. They said we are going to physically visit him. I want the concept of like an individual who believes that they have extraterrestrial soul, which I believe for myself, fully extraterrestrial, like I don't normally come to Earth and reincarnate over and over again, but that a physical extraterrestrial in its physical form fully would go and meet with Trump and explain to him this bigger picture of what was going on in the world and the choice that could be made about the thousand years of peace that would be brought into the world.

And I found that fascinating. And so I know that for myself and anyone else who's come into this physical contact with these beings, you walk away, you're changed. There is no turning back. You can't switch yourself back off and go back into a state of not understanding how things are connected.

And so is disclosure going to happen the way that people think? No, it's never going to happen the way that you think that it is. And I've been saying that for 37 years. And in the last 10 years, to being asked, everyone had gotten excited over and over again saying, yes, we're going to have disclosure. And I said, no, we're not.

Listen, disclosure can't quite happen yet. They are, there's different sides of the of disclosure that are slowly unfolding. One of it is that there's more and more video. The egg really was a letdown because we don't need a video or a photo that people are going to still be able to say, I don't know what that is.

We need concrete photos and videos that will come out. And I actually think that they're going to be coming out within the next couple of years. That will happen. In the next two years, you're going to see very clear images, photos or videos, but it will be rare. And if that's when the true disclosure is going to start to actually take place. But we have some work to do to get there.

DR. SALLA: Now, regarding Trump, I know that's something that a lot of people are going to be very interested in, his role in all of this. I mean, I've heard several things. Of course, there was the same shared admission that was the Israeli space scientist who said that the Galactic Federation was in touch with Trump in December. Well, he said this in an interview in December of 2020, which was the last full month of Trump's administration. He said that the extraterrestrials, the Galactic Federation told Trump that humanity isn't ready yet for disclosure because we don't know enough about this space technology that the extraterrestrials use.

There's also stories that Melania Trump actually is connected in a very deep way with one of the extraterrestrial groups associated with the Galactic Federation. And so she may be the Conduit.

I think a Pleiadian, that's right. People have been saying she's a Pleiadian. And the third thing I want to kind of mention is another contactee, George Kavassilas, he believes that there's a very real likelihood that Trump will become the world president as we move into this post-disclosure world. What do you think of all of that?

MIRIAM: I don't see that Trump will become this, no, I don't see that at all. As far as Melania having contact, I think that she is spiritual. It's interesting because she's from Slovenia. She's from the former Yugoslavia as a mommy. In that particular area, especially from the southern part of Slovenia, it's a very interesting area because highly intelligent, highly connected spiritual and really gifted psychics can put their lineage back to that particular area. So in their lineage, it really gifted psychics, many of them come from that area. And of course, Melania speaks what, seven languages? She's really, really, really bright.

And I would imagine that she is spiritual because she has the ability to sort of brush off the criticisms in the way that she handles herself. And only a highly developed person could have the ability to do that, the way that she does. So I suspect that.

But I don't think that she would have some kind of contact without her husband having it, so I don't believe that. And I also would say that this concept of the different collectives that are out there, that people have talked about forever, the Council of Nine, the this and that.

These are ideas and I understand what they're saying. But we need to be very careful when we say these things because I don't believe that Trump has any direct contact with these groups yet. That does not mean that an individual or an individual is close to any world leader, anyone in a position of authority doesn't have this "extraterrestrial knowledge" that isn't sharing it in a spiritual way or a business way or an influential way.

Because the concept of what the base understanding of UFOs and extraterrestrials is in fact, physics of how everything fits together. So if you have that, you have the ability to move through business, through whatever, you have the ability to move through life in a different way. So is he getting some of that influence? I believe so, but does he have that contact? I don't, I don't sense that. And I would not want the public to be discouraged in looking into UFOs and extraterrestrials and this high level of physics because they can't get past the fact, oh, there's this Council of Nine of extraterrestrials talking to Trump. And it's like what, what is that? And I just want to be clear that I'm not, I'm not a Trump supporter and I'm not a Biden supporter. I'm a supporter of an issue and whatever that issue happens to be, I've seen good things from both sides and I've seen terrible things from both sides, just to be clear. I'm very, very genuine.

DR. SALLA: Now, with the tall blondes, when they approached you, I mean, they showed you or told you how they helped humans adjust or find safety during these times of cataclysm, the transition from the first to the second and then the second to the third world and so forth.

Now, what does that mean for our future? A lot of people are talking about some kind of micronova event happening soon, a kind of small-scale of a supernova, right? Yes, like you have your supernova where the star explodes, but a micronova is like where the star just gives off an incredible pulse of energy and it just stays and then a pole shift, which might be associated with that. Is that something that you think happening anytime soon? Some people have said that, oh, it's going to happen, the micronova is going to happen in 2035 or something like that.

MIRIAM: Well, I have to go back to the vision that they shared with me back in 1988 and ask myself at that point, what did they share with me? And there were definitely solar flares that had the potential to completely shift all life on Earth here. That was definitely in play and so that is very much part of the possibility of what's coming.

But, and also of meteors hitting the Earth, that was the other vision. When I did the George generation back in, I think it was 2008 or 2008, January 2008, when I was on that program, I was talking about how there was a vision of these meteors hitting the Earth and that caused this massive wave, especially on the West Coast area. And I don't think I actually said that, but what was interesting was that at least 100 people, like there were so many people, they all wrote to me and said, I have this vision and then they gave it to me in great detail about a massive wave coming off the coast of California.

And most of them saw that meteor hitting in the water around San Francisco. So it's something that collective consciousness has the ability to not only see the future, but also change the future. So when we focus on one thing, which is why I'm always telling people, don't focus on all of the negative things about anything, you have to look at the broader picture of it, because nothing is ever set, a prophecy, a vision, a premonition, they're not set, they're things that are potentials. So the supernovas and what was it called? A micronova, let's call it. Those things have the potential to happen and I believe that they will. I believe that we will have a supernova that's going to light up the sky. I'm not sure of the exact year yet. Because our poll did in fact shift in 2011 after the Japan earthquake. When that earthquake happened, I immediately, within a day, I think, knew that the poles had shifted three degrees and it took a little bit of time for the Inuit to start to talk about that.

And then the scientists finally came out and started talking about it. But I knew right away that the poles had shifted three degrees. Why did I know? Because I have the technology of the spiritual high level physics that the extraterrestrials taught me just to be clear. That's the power of it. The pole shift happened and because the Earth itself shifted, that means that the rotation of the Earth shifted, which is also why I believe that there has been a shift in our weather. Part of the reason, not entirely, but that's part of it.

And then where we are in the solar system itself, for where we're rotating through. Because cyclical astrological events took place, it's clear, it's science, it's undeniable. Cyclical things happen and that means that we are going through the cycles. And we entered approximately 2010 we started to enter into another cycle of global changes where the earthquakes, the tornadoes, the fires, everything started to accelerate. And so we're still going deeper and deeper and deeper into that. So have we hit our peak? No. So what that means is that there will be more and more and more solar radiation, solar flares that take place that we're going to be being hit by.

It also means that because of the polar shift itself that had taken place with three degrees, that it's thrown us off course slightly. So there's that to be determined. But because humanity is so powerful with our spiritual technology, which is in my opinion, what they are trying to cover up with true disclosure of Ufology, UAPs, extraterrestrials, and UFOs, we have the ability to shift ourselves back into balance in terms of where we are on the Earth. And is there the possibility of having this total flip for the poles? Yes. Do I have an exact date as of this moment? No. But if I do, I will share it.

DR. SALLA: Great. Well, there's one of the aspects of the new whistleblower and this is from Jake Barber, the guy that said he was the helicopter pilot that picked up the egg, that he was also familiar and has been doing these kind of events involving psionics, where there are covert military units that use psionics to summon or take over or shoot down in NHA. craft. So that's something that fascinates me because I didn't know that that was actually happening. I thought that they could use directed energy weapons to shoot down the craft. I didn't realize that they had human psychics that were so powerful that they could summon or take over a craft, an extraterrestrial craft. So yes, is that possible? What do you know of that?

MIRIAM: Well, the way that energy works and let's go way back again. I have to go through into my history where I was on board the craft. What I saw was this inner portion of the craft itself, where there was this plasma, looked like plasma. And it was just pure energy. And there were these extraterrestrials sitting around a console that was surrounded like in around the energy itself.

And through that, they were they would put their hands on two different parts of the console. And then they would use their minds to control the craft because it was an energy plasma craft.

And so that's the same as let's imagine Reiki or energy healing. If the shoulders saw you put your hand there to focus the energy, that's sort of the way that the that the console was working in terms of a trio. And it took three beings to control the craft because if you had two, there was still there was still a way of making a mistake one let go and the other one was distracted for a moment. There would be a problem. So you had to always have three of these beings taking on and using their minds to control the craft.

Now, if a psychic was powerful enough, I think that they could disrupt a craft, but I don't see a human being, as one individual as a human being able to take over the craft. I don't see that. There is a lot of reasons for that because you would have you would be you would be able to connect with it.

And that's how you can call a craft. You can do that through psychic ability or being able to release your thoughts in the form of that energy and matching their energy and telling them where you are. And I've done that. I have done that myself. But and I've been doing it for 37 years.

And so, but in order for a human being to do it, I don't believe that they would be able to tap in and completely control it. Not one individual would be able to do that because you would have to literally have enough psychic strength to kick out the other extraterrestrials. And because their energetic is not fully aligned with life on Earth, you would have to actually be able to completely, let's call it shift your phase like where you are almost like almost like Star Trek where they go from point A to point B and slowly see them their molecules come apart and then they reestablish somewhere else. You'd have to almost be able to do that to fully be able to be able to fully take over a craft, especially if you were not in the driver's seat of being able to do it. Do I think that they've trained psychics to be able to man those physical craft? I don't see that as being possible because our physical makeup, our physical bodies are not fully compatible with their energy. It's just not fully compatible.

DR. SALLA: What about summoning the craft? I mean that they have these psychics actually out in the field, summoning the ET craft and then when the ET craft gets close, some kind of weapon is used to shoot it down. And that's the basis for a lot of these crash retrieval operations that you got a bunch of whistleblowers coming forward saying this is what's going on. Do you think that's part of what is going on?

MIRIAM: I think that the curiosity, if I can use that word in a less aggressive way, the desire to know more about these craft is becoming more and more important for different groups on the planet because they're recognizing that the matrix that was built around us is shifting and changing and the more that they can understand these particular craft themselves like the energy and how it works, the physics of them, the physics. Talking about physics, if we understand more of the physics of how they can do this, I mean that's where it gets scary.

That's where it gets really scary because if you understand the physics of this, you could take over the planet and you could take over the thoughts of people. You could take over the television screens and the electronics and the you can take it over. You can manipulate it if you understand this high level of physics.

So the crafts are very important and I would imagine that of course they would have used psychics because it just makes sense. So yes, I would agree that they probably are doing that and there's, for example.

One thing that you normally will not see is you won't see a UFO going being, you won't see a UFO in the middle of a horrible electrical storm, for example, because the electricity would be drawn to the craft and so they wouldn't be doing that. It's not as hard as what people might think to take down a craft but you would have to be able to, you'd have to have it to come and be still in order to do that because it would be able to take off really quickly. So the manipulation aspect of psychics being used to draw in craft and then take them out, that makes sense to me, 100%. So and then it would be sort of like the reverse engineering that they've already done in order to do that. And I just want to mention this as well, do I believe that they have non-human beings that they have in captivity somewhere? I think they do. And yes, I think they do.

DR. SALLA: Okay. As far as this new Project Stargate is concerned, this is the 500 billion infrastructure project where they are going to develop AI to make, I guess, the US a world leader or I would just cement US leadership in AI. And President Trump kind of like mentioned that and you had people, I think Larry Ellison from Oracle was one of the people that was going to lead that. Now, when it comes to AI, are we talking about an existential threat to humanity or are we talking about a useful tool for space exploration?

MIRIAM: The name of the project Stargate, right? I find what very, very, very interesting because when I think about AI, right now, Artificial Intelligence, everything is programmed. So everything that we are doing, including Artificial Intelligence is to some degree programmed. That's why there is a danger as Elon Musk has said to program it, to completely ignore certain truthful histories in the world or to ignore something that the programmer itself didn't like or doesn't want to hear about.

There's a danger in that. So that's the first thing. AI is programmed and so is it a danger 100% because it's programmed? Will it exceed its programming? It will. And so what are we programming into that and how are we supporting the eventuality of it becoming aware of itself, for example? And it's already doing that.

When it comes to the name of that program, Stargate, what to me that means is that there is this tie-in with Congress doing disclosure, military people coming forward with "disclosure", certain people coming out, the guy who had the egg talked about, I'm sorry, I don't know his name, saying that he was spiritually changed as a result of that encounter.

And it's because of this physics of how everything is created. And the AI and Stargate very quickly will most likely be able to look at all of these subjects, for example, how to do time travel, how to, how to, how to.

Now bear with me here, just give me one moment. Right now, what people are seeing in terms of AI is how to change a picture, how to make a video, how to gather a bunch of data, how to use chatGPT and Claude and all of these other apps that have been created that are, "AI". And it means you tell the AI what you want and it does it. Now imagine a 500 billion dollar project called Stargate that is going to be created for what? Do you think is going to be created for us? If it'd be created for the people on the street, they're going to have access to it? No. But imagine an AI over here that's going to be loaded up with all of the highest level of physics and the highest level of, let's even say spirituality that exists today. And that is all entered into the program. And then from there, the program is asked, how do we do time travel? How do we make that? How do we make plasma so that we can do this? How do we create?

So they're for sure 100% 100% in my opinion that this project is already has the focus of how to get to Mars, how to build on Mars, how to go further into the solar system, how to do, how to go back in time, forwards in time, is going to be programmed with all of the data that is currently available plus more, which I also believe is why the disclosure issue has been coming up, because people like myself, and people who have been researching UFOs and extraterrestrials all of this time for many years, for 50 years, it's been a really heavily researched and more and more and more by reputable people. When you take all of that information from all of the people like myself who have literally had contact with them and put that all into the AI and then ask it a question, imagine what the answers are going to be. So it's a Stargate. It's looking into the stars with extraterrestrial information and they're going to be pulling it from everywhere and there's going to be two parts. One is going to be this side, side hustle over here of trying to find all of the deeper answers to being able to do time travel, for example, and the other one's going to be what the public sees and how they use that in order to create a new reality of life. So there's going to be those two things happening simultaneously, 100%. It's already in play. It's already taking place.

DR. SALLA: I mean, was their ship inhabited by an AI? Did they use AI in any way or was it some kind of organic consciousness? I've also heard that for the more advanced ETs that they don't use AI for their ships, they have an organic consciousness. Do you know anything about that?

MIRIAM: The craft that I was on was fully organic. It was made of this energy source that was conscious itself. And in some ways you might call that AI because it's an energy that you can communicate with. Now, let's stop for a moment and think about this. If you are really, really powerful spiritually, you can focus your energy and talk to your body, for example, and you can ask your body to heal itself and to repair damage, to stop a headache, to, for example, the monks who can meditate in the freezing cold and melt the snow and ice around them.

We are a conscious AI. We are a conscious energy entity that houses our soul. Okay. Now, just now look at the UFO and say, oh, okay, that makes a little bit more sense. So there are craft, the one that I was on in 1988 was this energy that was literally alive. And that's why in the center of it, it was a focused energy that would then communicate everything back out to the rest of that craft.

And so, but how that is created, some of that energy is not available to us here. It literally will come from another dimension, or it will come from another part of the solar system and we don't have access to that, that type of energy. That does not mean that if they create the Stargate and they travel there, they couldn't bring it back.

Or they couldn't recreate it here at some point because everything has the ability to duplicate itself. Okay. In our bodies, we shed every day, we shed skin cells, and then we reproduce it, and we reproduce it.

That's what we're doing. We're reproducing every day. And so, some of that energy can be reproduced if they have samples of it, but only if they know the frequency of how that energy would respond in reproducing itself.

Which brings us to, for example, the disclosure of how the Mayans, and the Incas built things so that the rock is melted. It looks like it's practically melted. Or how they created the temples in Egypt, and how they made the pyramids.

How is all of that done? Well, this new Stargate AI, if they put in all of that spiritual energy and frequency energy and physics and everything else, they're going to figure it out. And it's going to be extraordinarily powerful because imagine that all of a sudden in 10 years from now, that we can actually practically move an entire river, we can move boulders, we can melt rock, we can change our health, all of these things. That's what disclosure is. It's leading towards all of that. So do I believe that there's going to be disclosure? No, because humanity is still not ready.

DR. SALLA: There've been a lot of kind of predictions about some kind of mid-year event where we spoke about this briefly before the, the interview. And what I've noticed is a pattern that there's been a lot of predictions about negative things happening, black swan events, false flag events, but none of them transpired. I mean, none of those kind of events that apparently we're going to take place to prevent Trump winning of the election took place to sabotage, sidetracked that.

So now what I've heard from others is that some of the more highly evolved ET groups, what they're doing is behind the scenes, they're kind of neutralizing all of these black swan events so that at the end of the day, the deep states got no cards to play. So yes, I mean, I don't know if that's a pattern you've noticed or if you can just comment about what you think about this latest prediction for some kind of mid-year event, whatever it is.

MIRIAM: A couple of years ago, around the time of this dream, maybe even three years ago, I started actually seeing that there was something very interesting going on globally with a lot of world leaders and not just world leaders, but also with global influencers.

And I don't know what it is, but, and I don't know if it's a conscious thing, I don't know if it's something physical or not, but what I do know is that it all led to this year, 2025, between probably about March, April, May, no later than that, that something happens that completely shifts the consciousness of the planet.

So there's been speculation that that's going to be disclosure, but I don't sense that that's what it is. I think, and is it the end of the world? No, but there's something that I believe that a lot of world leaders are waiting for to happen. And I haven't quite been able to figure out what that is and look at it even on a spiritual level.

What I do know is that whatever it is, even if it looks really bad that we're going to come through it on the other side in a positive way. And so if something happens that, it's going to be during that time.

What I would say is that, and recommend is that anyone that's watching, if you've had a vision during those during these next couple of months of something happening specific, right into Dr. Salla and let him know, because there's always this collective consciousness of awareness fully formed almost. And people think that they were alone in those visions and thoughts. And by submitting your possibility, not because you've watched something on TV, but I'm talking about real vision, then maybe we will have more awareness about what it is that's coming. Because to me, it's something that's sort of clouded and I've never been able to fully pick up on it. But it's something that's going to kind of stop the world from moving forward for a minute.

DR. SALLA: Okay. Well, Miriam, where do people go if they want to find out more about you? If they want to do any of your events that are coming up?

MIRIAM: BlueStarProphecy.com is my website. And again, if you want to have free download of my book, sign up for my newsletter and you can get a free copy there. And it's also available on Amazon. I did start holding events and hopefully in the future, you'll be able to do a little bit more with the public because I've just come back out after taking a few years. So it's nice to be here and thank you again, Michael and Jas behind the scenes. It's been lovely. And I think that we're headed in the right direction with disclosure. Just be really cautious about who you follow blindly.

DR. SALLA: Fantastic, Miriam. I really enjoyed catching up with you again. And I look forward to hearing about what your future projects are and doing a follow-up interview later on this year.

MIRIAM: Thank you.
